A review of the above-identified patent application following publication has identified the following errors in the application:

1. The first name of inventor Constantinof was misspelled as "Ch~~ri~~stian" when the inventor's correct name is --Cristian C. Constantinof--. The error in the documentation filed with the application was simply a typographical error that went unnoticed by the inventor when executing the documents. The Office is hereby requested to correct the name of inventor Constantinof in the Office records, and confirmation that the spelling of the inventor's name has been corrected is requested.
2. In the published application at Page 9, line 30 – Page 10, line 1 a new paragraph has been inserted in mid-sentence between "between the" and "DSCM 26". While republication of the application is not required, this error is merely pointed out to the Office in order that the error can be corrected in the Office's electronic copy of the application.

Yours very truly,

Max R. Wood
